THE SCHOLARSHIP BOOK

THE HARTFORD CONSORTIUM FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

CAREER BEGINNINGS

Founded in 1986, Career Beginnings (CB) - a program of the Hartford Consortium for Higher Education (HCHE) - connects high schools, businesses, volunteer, professional mentors and parents in a coordinated effort to increase the percentage of teenagers who graduate from high school, pursue higher education and fulfill career goals.

Career Beginnings supports 11th and 12th grade students at the following high schools:

A.I. Prince Technical High School ■ Bloomfield High School ■ Bulkeley High School ■ East Hartford High School ■ Hartford Public High School: Academy of Engineering and Green Technology, Nursing Academy, Law and Government Academy ■ High School, Inc. ■ Manchester High School The Culinary Arts Academy ■ The Journalism and Media Academy

The Hartford Consortium for Higher Education (HCHE) has long been committed to working to address equitable access to higher education and transition to college through the efforts of the HCHE's signature Career Beginnings Program. One barrier to even having college aspirations, not to mention going to and successfully completing college, is the perception that college is unaffordable.

College is expensive but there are steps students can take to reduce costs and increase the affordability of a college degree. One important step is to apply for as many scholarships as you can. You may find yourself eligible for more scholarships than you think – they are not just for top students. To that end, the Career Beginnings Program has compiled a list of scholarships for which students enrolled in the program may be eligible. Remember, each dollar of scholarship aid is a dollar that you don't have to pay or borrow!

In this booklet, you will find a brief description of each scholarship, along with contact information and/or links that will direct you to the specific scholarship website and application. This information can also be found in the Career Beginnings Scholarship database, which is located at www.hartfordconsortium.org.

Please note that the Information contained in this booklet is subject to change. We encourage you to check the specific scholarship website for the most current information.

For additional information about the Career Beginnings Program, please feel free to visit our website at www.careerbeginningsct.org. You may also contact the Career Beginnings Program Director at amolinaro@metrohartford.com or by phone at (860) 702-3802 or (860) 702-3812.
